

SEND EXPLORE YOUR WAY

Explore

Your Way

Widgit

Widgit

Guides

© Widgit Software Ltd 2002 – 2025

WELCOME

Welcome

the Roald Dahl

Museum

 We are proud of the Museum.

 We want our visitors to feel comfortable and enjoy the museum.

 Information you might need to know:

 ● The Museum is colourful

 ● The Museum is exciting and can be noisy when busy

 ● You can touch things in the Museum

 ● You can make noise

 ● You can ask our staff questions and ask for help.

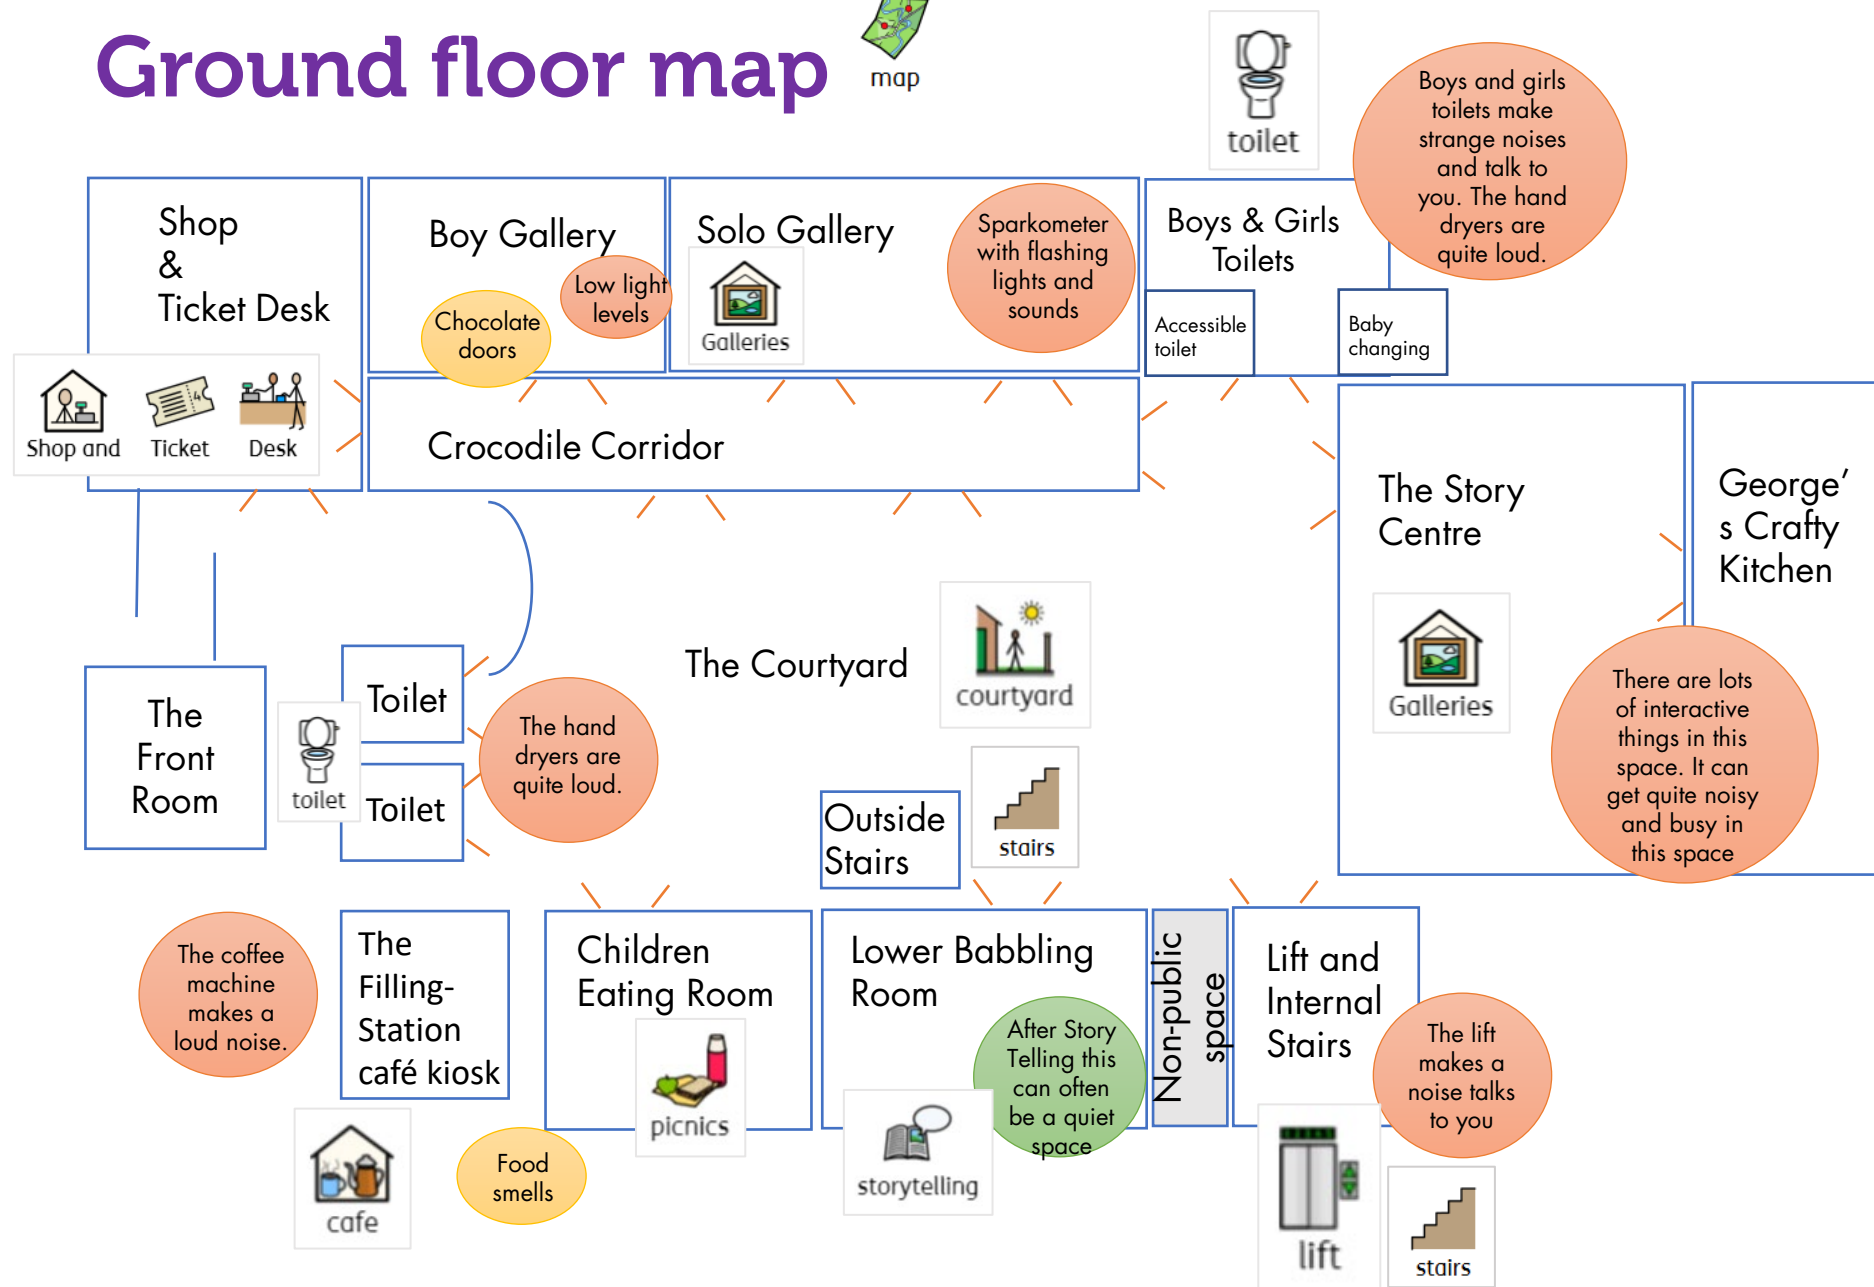

The Museum is in the village of Great Missenden

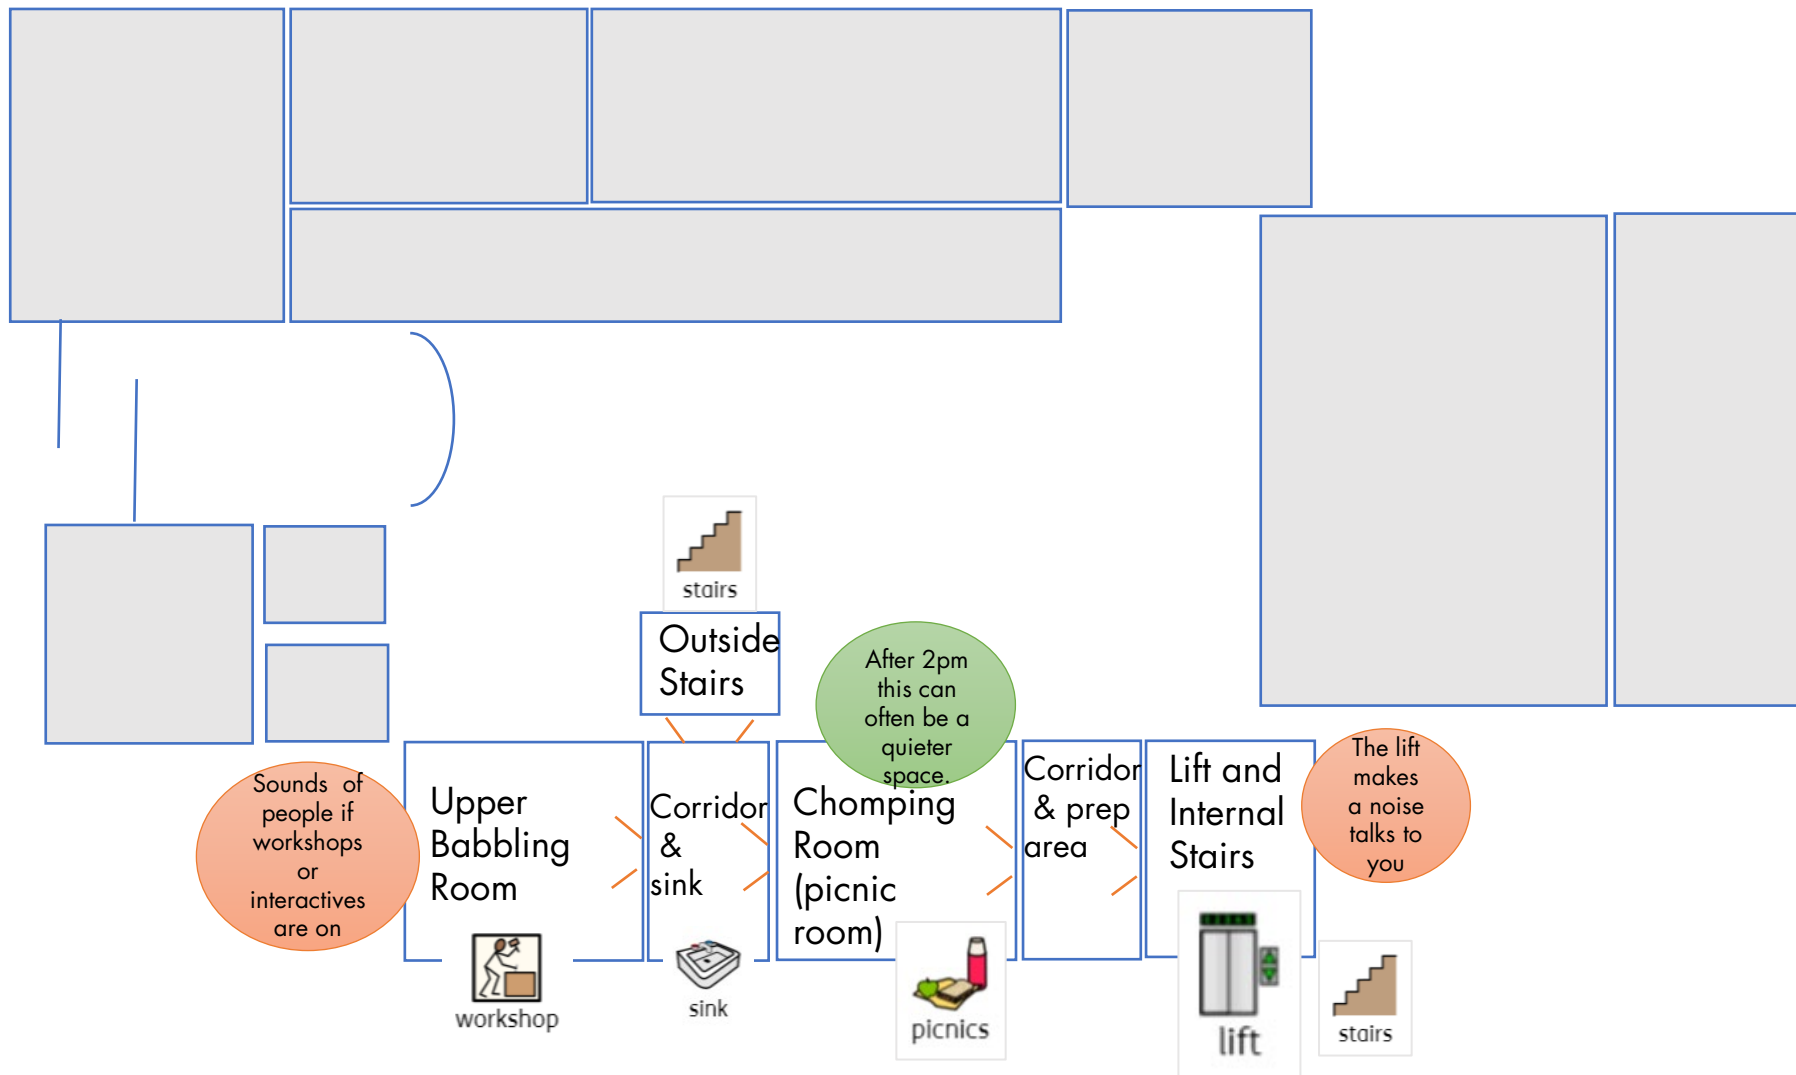

Ground floor map

map

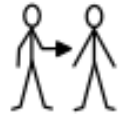

First Floor map

In the Museum

you will find

Smells

Sounds

low light

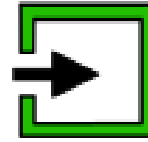

Flashing lights

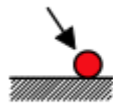

Museum

entrance

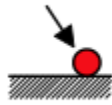

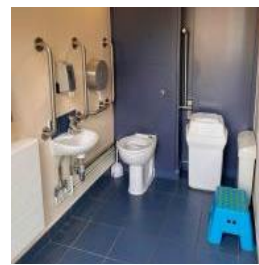

There

are toilets

at the entrance

There

are toilets

in the courtyard.

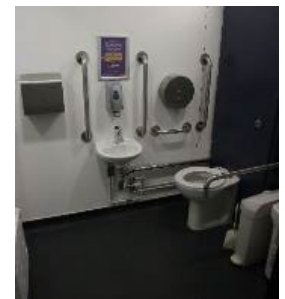

The toilets

talk

and make noises

The nearest Changing Places toilet is at Tesco in Amersham 6 miles away. <https://www.changing-places.org/find>

Ticket

Desk.

Ticket

Desk.

You can buy

or

show

your tickets

here.

You can ask

staff

if you need help.

Museum

shop

Museum

Shop.

You can

buy

toys

and books

here.

You can

ask

staff

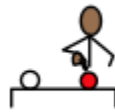

if you

need

help.

This

room

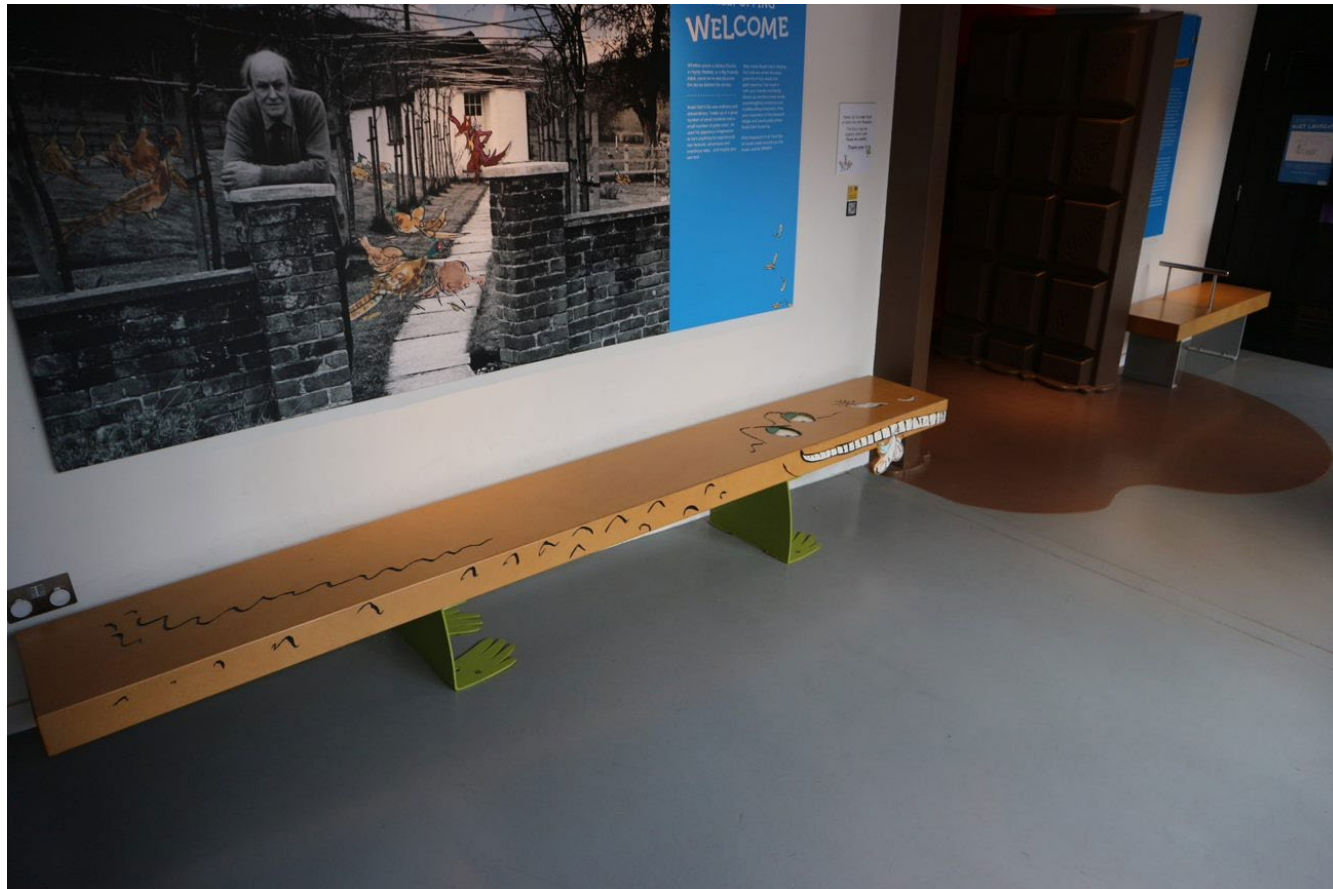

is called

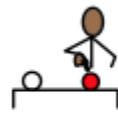

Crocodile

Corridor

This

room

is called

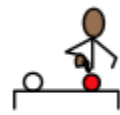

Boy

Gallery

This

room

is called

Solo

Gallery

This

room

is called

The Story Centre

This

room

is called

George's

Crafty

Kitchen.

You can do

craft activities

here.

This

room

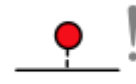

is called

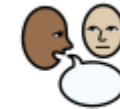

The Wonderful Woods

or

Lower

Babbling

Room.

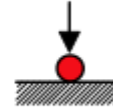

We

do

Storytelling

here.

You can eat

your picnics

in our picnic

rooms

Children

Eating

Room

Chomping

Room

The Museum

Courtyard.

You can play

or

eat

picnics

here.

Museum

cafe

is called

The Filling Station.

You can

buy

hot drinks

and cold

drinks.

You can

buy

cakes.

You can

buy

snacks

The Coffee machine

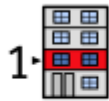

&

Milkshake machine

is noisy.

To get to the first floor you can use the lift or stairs

First floor

corridor

area

and

sink.

You will see

this if you go to a workshop

or visit

The Upper

Babbling

Room.

Museum

Preparation

Room.

You will see

this if you go to a workshop

or visit

The Upper

Babbling

Room.

 In an emergency museum staff will help you. You might:

-

 hear a loud siren or alarm.

-

 be asked by museum staff or the emergency services to leave the museum via the fire exit.

-

 be asked to wait by museum staff or the emergency services.

-

 not be able to go go into the museum.

-

 need to leave your belongings at the museum.

GOODBYE

Goodbye

Thank you for visiting

The Roald Dahl

Museum

and

Story Centre.

We hope

you had a lovely

visit

THE ROALD DAHL MUSEUM AND
STORY CENTRE

www.roalddahlmuseum.org

